      C            Am            Dm          G7
In  Dublin's fair  city, where the  girls are so  pretty,

      C            Am            F            G7
I  first set my  eyes on sweet  Molly Ma-lone

        C                 Am
As she  wheeled her wheel  barrow

            Dm             G7
Through  streets broad and  narrow

          C       Am   C       Am  C    G7    C
Crying  cockles  and  mussels,    a-live,  alive  O!

      C          Am  Dm        G7
Alive, alive O! a-live, alive  O!

          C       Am   C
Crying  cockles  and  mussels,

 Am  C     G7     C
   a-live,  alive  O!

       C            Am
She  was a fish-monger,

    Dm             G7
but  sure 'twas no  wonder

    C            Am       F            G7
For  so were her  father and  mother be-fore

        C                 Am
And they  each wheeled their  barrow

            Dm             G7
Through  streets broad and  narrow
```
      C   Am C
Crying cockles and mussels,

  a-live, a-live O!

She died of a fever, and no one could save her

     C   Am   F   G7
And that was the end of sweet Molly Ma-lone

      C   Am
But her ghost wheels her barrow

Through streets broad and narrow

  a-live, alive O!
