G
Suzanne takes you down to her place by the river

You can Am hear the boats go by you can spend the night beside her

And you G know that she's half crazy but that's why you want to be there

And she Bm feeds you tea and oranges that come

all the way from China

And just G when you mean to tell her that you

Am
have no love to give her

Then she G gets you on her wavelength and she

Am
lets the river answer

That you've G always been her lover

And you Bm want to travel with her and you

want to travel blind

And you G know that she will trust you

For you've Am touched her perfect body with your G mind

And Jesus was a sailor when He walked upon the water

And He Am spent a long time watching from his lonely wooden tower

And G when He knew for certain only drowning men could see Him

He said Bm All men will be sailors then until the sea shall free them C

But G He Himself was broken long before the sky would open Am

G Forsaken almost human. He Am sank beneath your wisdom like a G stone

And you Bm want to travel with him and you C want to travel blind

And you G think maybe you'll trust him

For he's Am touched your perfect body with his G mind

G Suzanne takes your hand and she leads you to the river

She is Am wearing rags and feathers from Salvation Army counters

And the G sun pours down like honey on our lady of the harbor

And she Bm shows you where to look among the C garbage and the flowers

There are G heroes in the seaweed there are Am children in the morning

They are G leaning out for love and they will Am lean that way forever

While G Suzanne holds the mirror

And you Bm want to travel with her and you C want to travel blind

And you G know that you will trust her

For she's Am touched your perfect body with her G mind
